Friday 21st April 2023

Dear Parent / Carer,

The teacher unions have continued with their plans for more industrial action. Teachers in the National Education Union (NEU) will be striking again next week.

This strike action means that due to staffing shortages, our staffing levels have been impacted.

Thursday 27th April – Class 1 (Mr Taylor's class) and Class 4 (Mr Leadbetter's class) will need to remain at home and complete home learning (more details to follow).

Work will be brought home so that pupils may continue with their learning on these days and packed lunches will be provided on Wednesday 26th to come home with the boys for the following day. All other pupils should attend school as normal on Thursday 27th April.

The decision to keep two classes at home has been made as a last resort and many other options were explored. Pupil safety and adult to pupil ratios are our primary concern and therefore we must reduce the numbers of pupils on site on this day.

There are no more planned future strike dates, however if more dates do transpire, we will ensure that we can safely have school open to as many pupils as possible. In the interests of fairness, we are closely monitoring the number of days each class has been asked to stay at home and will continue to do so.

Please accept my apologies for any inconvenience caused.

Yours sincerely,

Mr I Griffiths
Headteacher
